Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 44-59, 71-75, and 122-139 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for a routine wherein when the routine receives an indication that the buyer has submitted the bid, the routine determines whether the auction system can recognize the buyer, does not reasonably provide enablement for a when the routing receives an indication without a bid.

The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to practice the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

Claims 44-59, 71-75, and 122-139 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In the claims "an indication to place a bid" is vague and indefinite. Is an indication also the bid?

Resolution of the above matter will render the claims allowable.
